TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY OF 2016

Sunday 16th October 2016

Ann Wright RIP – Please remember in your Masses and Prayers Ann Wright who died recently. Her funeral will be on Wednesday at 10am at All Saints. Our prayerful condolences go to her husband Keith and all of the family. (FG)

The protection of children and vulnerable adults remains a priority for us all. We are grateful to David Townend (AS) and Bev Howard (SMC) for the work they have done over the years.

Liz Nash will now succeed Bev as the representative for SMC, and we thank Liz for using her experience in education to undertake this responsibility.

May I remind you that everyone in the parish who has any contact with children/young people or with vulnerable adults must have the right documentation from the Diocese. Please see your parish rep for further details. (FG)

The Annual Mass of Anointing, Healing and Blessing, which has become such a beautiful event in our Parish Calendar will be on Sunday 20th November at 3.30pm in the Parish Hall.

Please advertise this event to anyone who you think may be interested in coming along. There will be a bumper tea afterwards! (FG)

The November dead list envelopes are at the back of the Church. Please include the names of all your ancestors and deceased family and friends, in time for the feasts of All Souls/All Saints.

You can place your completed envelopes with your offering in the collection baskets. These will be placed on the altar throughout the month of November. During the year, Mass will be offered individually for each family if you so wish. (FG)

On Remembrance Sunday (Sunday 13th November) there will be only one Sunday morning Mass at 9.30am in SMC, due to our commitment at the Cenotaph at 11am. (FG)

Background on the Gospel Reading: Lk; 18: 1-8

This is the first of two parables that Jesus tells in Luke 18 about prayer. This first parable is a lesson in persistence in prayer. While the parable seems to present prayer as nagging God for what we want, such a reading misses the point.

God is not like the judge in the parable, worn down by requests and coerced to respond. The key is found in the description of the judge as corrupt and unjust. Since God can be neither, we must understand Jesus to be saying that if even an unjust judge responds to the persistence of the widow, how much more so will God listen to our prayers.

God truly wants to hear our needs and respond generously. It is the final lament of Jesus that gets to the point of the parable. The lesson is about the persistence of the one who prays. God wants us to be like the persistent widow, staying in relationship with God, confident that God hears and answers prayers. Then Jesus laments, "Will such faith be found when the Son of Man comes?" In this lament, Jesus notes how easy it can be for us to lose heart.

Around the Schools:

News from St Philip Howard Catholic Academy:

We've had another busy week here at St Philip Howard, particularly as we approach the October half term. On Tuesday we celebrated Aida Lovelace Day, an international celebration day of achievements of women in science, technology, engineering & maths (STEM). It aims to increase the profile of women in STEM and, in doing so, create new role models who will encourage more girls into STEM careers & support women already working in STEM. This is a particular focus for us here at SPH, as we look to increase the number of girls opting to study Engineering.

We held a Data and Curriculum Evening on Thursday for parents & carers of KS4 children. The aim of the meeting was to explain to parents the new GCSE curriculum, grading & accountability measures. There is a lot of change in education now and we want to make sure that parents are best placed to help their children through such crucial years.

Year 8 students visited Chester Zoo on Thursday as part of their learning in Science, so we look forward to hearing about the trip in next week's update.

October 19th is an important day in our school calendar as it is the Feast Day of our school's patron saint – St Philip Howard. We will be celebrating this day with a number of special liturgies.
