TWENTY EIGHTH SUNDAY OF 2017

Sunday 15th October 2017

Bishop Patrick has written to us this week concerning the ongoing campaign against slavery.

It is hoped that the praying of the prayer will be a good way of keeping the issue of human trafficking and modern slavery alive within the congregations of the Diocese. Wednesday is a day of focus for this issue.

For the victims of human trafficking

We pray for the victims of human trafficking and all those in any kind of slavery

We pray for those rescued from slavery, that they may heal from years of abuse

We pray for retail managers, that they may rid their supply chain of enforced labour

We pray for the men and women who care for those who have been rescued from slavery

We pray that the Church will rise up and lead the fight against modern slavery

We pray that we may understand our complicity, in buying the goods produced by this evil trade

We pray that together we can bring an end to modern slavery

Our Lady, Mother of Mercy, pray for us

Know the signs of potential modern slavery/human trafficking: Does someone living on your street or serving you in their job:

show signs of physical or psychological abuse?

look malnourished or unkempt?

often wear the same clothes?

appear withdrawn or frightened?

appear under control or influence?

have little opportunity to move freely?

appear totally unfamiliar with the neighbourhood?

seem to be living and working at the same address?

live with a large number of seemingly unrelated people?

get picked up daily and dropped off again

very early/late?

Report any concerns safely to:

Modern Slavery Helpline 08000 121 700

More information at modernslaveryhelpline.org

Never approach someone you suspect is a victim of modern slavery, as you could be putting both yourself and them in serious danger. Report safely as above or by calling the Police on 101.

Last week I gave notice of 'Adoremus' the name given to next year's Eucharistic Congress. This event in Liverpool is over 3 days 7th – 9th September. I believe that the Friday is a day for Catechists and Eucharistic Ministers and I would encourage and support any catechist/Eucharistic Minister who is willing to attend to let me know asap as names have to be submitted.

The Saturday is the main day and is scheduled to happen in The Echo Arena in Liverpool - which can accommodate 10,000 pilgrims - will be the home to a six-hour stage programme, which will include a Congress Mass, keynote speakers including Bishop Robert Barron, an excellent speaker, and a drama highlighting the beauty of reverence and devotion.

The day will conclude with Adoration. I have to submit names for this event so please register your interest asap.

On the final day (Sunday 9th September) there will be a Procession through the city, remembering that this was an illegal activity when there was a last Eucharistic congress in England in 1908. If you are interested in going, please tell me and I am thinking that if there are enough people we could get a coach and travel together to Liverpool. So please put the dates in your diaries and tell me of your interest in going, and we will firm it up in the new year. (FG)

Holydays of Obligation: with effect from 1st Sunday of Advent 2017: two holy days of obligation are being reinstated. This decision was made by the Bishops of England and Wales, and has been confirmed by the Holy See. The days are: The Epiphany of the Lord – 6th January (transferred to the adjacent Sunday when it falls on a Saturday or a Sunday. The Ascension of the Lord – Thursday after the 6th Sunday of Easter.

Becoming a Catholic: "What's stopping you from becoming a Catholic?" Is the name of a programme on the Catholic digital channel EWTN telling the stories of converts to Catholicism, but it's also a good question to ask any Church going person, believing our Church, that is the Catholic Church, to be the true Church: "One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic". Follow the cerebral arguments with a personal testimony as to why you belong to the Catholic Church and let the Holy Spirit do the rest! Please pass the names and contact details of anyone you know who may be interested in becoming a member of the Catholic Church. (FG)

Courageous - Youth 2000 Retreat for young people aged between 16-35 years of age - St. Benedict's Academy - 27th-29th October 2017:

Bishop Patrick has invited Youth 2000 to lead a retreat for young people & families of the Diocese to be held at St Benedict's Academy, Derby; 27th-29th October. The week-end is a Diocesan initiative run in partnership with the Diocese and the Briars Team. The retreat is called Courageous, as it is hoped that through talks, Mass, Fellowship, Adoration, Praise and Worship, Reconciliation and Healing, that all who attend will be built up in the courage of their faith to become better followers of Jesus Christ. For more information visit youth2000.org or contact: Joe Hopkins jhopkins@christtheking.notts.sch.uk

Please make any cheques payable to St Mary Crowned Church or All Saints Roman Catholic Church to help us with the ongoing restoration work. A BIG Thank You to those generous parishioners who have already done this. (FG)

World Mission Sunday 22nd October: Pope Francis' message for World Mission Sunday, "This year gathers us once again around Jesus, the first and greatest evangelist, who sends us out to proclaim the Gospel. The world vitally needs the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Through the Church, Christ continues his mission as Good Samaritan, caring for humanity's wounds, & as Good Shepherd, seeking out those who are lost on paths that lead nowhere. There are countless testimonies as to how the transformative power of the Gospel helps to overcome conflict, while promoting reconciliation." This special day will be focused on the Church in South Sudan where sadly, conflict continues; more people are hungry, homeless & traumatised. Retribution is rife. World Mission Sunday is your chance to support our missionaries & the Church in proclaiming the Gospel of peace to those who suffer around the world. By supporting Missio, the Pope's official charity for overseas mission, you will be sharing the love & peace of Christ with all people. Please give what you are able in the envelopes provided and return them on Sunday 22nd October. "Thank you for your compassion and generosity."
