FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS 2017

Sundays 24th & 31st December 2017

Today we celebrate the liturgy of the 4th Sunday of Advent.....

However we all have an eye on the big day tomorrow whose Liturgical celebrations begin this evening! This makes it a very short Advent! It has been an eventful one with you reaching out to the needy and hungry with your work at cornerstones in Manchester <http://cornerstonecds.org.uk> and your ongoing support for the local bare necessities foodbank. You have been knitting squares for blanket making, and continued your wonderful fundraising efforts for our two magnificent local Churches and for our needy brothers and sisters abroad. You have been creative in your endeavours with a wonderful Christmas band concert, and a play written, performed and directed by home talent.

These activities are an essential part of the Churches mission, and give us the opportunity of putting into practice the corporate works of mercy.

We remain committed to the will and mind of Jesus Christ through his Church, and through the prayer of the Mass and other celebrations of the Sacraments worship and praise him who promised to be with us until the end of time.

Thank you for everything that you do to keep the local Church vibrant and alive.

May I take this opportunity of wishing you and all of your families a very Happy Christmas, and I look forward to working with you once more in the new year! (FG)

Mgr Jonathan Moore sends us all his blessings, and wishes us all a Happy Christmas and New Year. He goes on to say "This year I decided not to buy Christmas cards and presents, but instead used the money to fund the provision of clean drinking water for a community in the 3rd world. The CAFOD world gift is not for one day, or even one year. I am glad to share it with my family and friends." – What an excellent idea. We should all do that next year. (FG)

We wish all our sister Churches in the town a Happy Christmas, and thank them for all the support that they have given us during the past 12 months. May the message of Christ take root in Glossop through the words, actions and gestures of all Christ's followers. We look forward to working with them in the new year, especially during the season of Lent where we shall once again have a concerted effort to come together in prayer every week. Details of that venture to follow in 2018.

Elfriede Gzokan RIP – Please remember in your Masses and Prayers Elfriede Gzokan who died last week. Her funeral service will take place at St Mary Crowned Church on Wednesday 3rd January 2018 at 12 Noon. Our prayerful condolences to her family.

May she rest in peace. Amen. (FG)

Thoughts from today's Readings:

Gospel Reading: Luke 1 : 26-38

What was Mary doing at the moment of the Annunciation? We smile at the question - but pursue it. Here is the moment of the most wonderful compliment a woman ever heard: You have been chosen by God to be the mother of the Messiah. Would God choose any moment for such a beautiful overwhelming compliment? No. It must have been a moment always to recall with utter joy, Mary knowing God could not have chosen a more wonderful moment.

The hints are there in the carefully structured story and we can glimpse the Evangelist's imagination of the setting in the mysterious dialogue between Mary and Gabriel.

Was she reading and meditating the lovely passage in Isaiah (7:10-14) and wondering about the woman who would be chosen to bear Emmanuel?

Thoughts on our Christmas Gospel Reading Lk 2:1-20

"There was no room for them"

Jesus is born in extreme poverty. It is not just a matter of the material destitution of his family. It is much more than this. He is born far from the village where his parents live, far from the love of relatives and friends, far from the comfort of the paternal home, even though poor. He is born among strangers who do not care for him and only offer a manger for his birth.

We see here the great mystery of the incarnation. Paul will say, "he was rich, but he became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty" (2 Cor 8:9). The prologue of John's Gospel affirms that although it is through him that the world came to be, Jesus, the Word made flesh, "he came to his own domain, and his own people did not accept him" (Jn 1:11). It is this drama that marks the whole of Jesus' life, coming to its culmination in the absolute rejection at the proceedings before Pilate (see Jn 18:28-19:16). In the final analysis, it is the drama of God who reveals himself and gives himself constantly to humanity and is so often rejected.

A sign to be deciphered

However, it must be said that it was not easy for his contemporaries to recognise Jesus. It is never easy for anyone, not even today, to recognise him for what he really is. Only God's revelation can unveil his mystery (see for example Jn 5:37; 6:45). In the story of his birth, the aim of the angelic message is precisely that of revealing his mystery.

In fact, our text is made up of three parts. In vv. 1-7 we have the fact of the birth of Jesus in a clear context. It is the birth of a boy like so many other boys. Verses 8-14 tell us about the message by an angel and the vision of angels who sing. It is God's revelation (see v.15) that allows us to discover in the "sign" of "a child wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger" (v. 12) "Christ the Lord" (v.11). In the last part (vv. 15-20), we come across various reactions to the revelation of the mystery. When the sign that God offers is received with humility, it marks the beginning of a journey of faith towards him who reveals himself.

A Poem for Reflection - Behold I Stand

When the night is deep with the sense of Christmas
And expectancy hangs heavy on every breath
Behold I stand at the door and knock

When the floor is knee deep in discarded
wrapping paper

And the new books are open at page one
And the new toys are already broken
Behold I stand at the door and knock.

When the family is squashed elbow to elbow
around the table

And the furious rush for food is over
And the only word that can describe the feeling is

FULL

Behold I stand at the door and knock

And when Christmas is over and the television is silent
For the first time in two days

And who sent which card to whom is forgotten
until next year

Behold I stand at the door

And when the nation has finished celebrating
Christmas without Christ

A birthday without a birth

The coming of a Kingdom without a King

And when I am Forgotten;

Despised; Rejected; Crucified

Behold I stand.

The Gate of the Year

And I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year:
 "Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown."

And he replied:

"Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the Hand of God.
 That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way."
 So I went forth, and finding the Hand of God, trod gladly into the night.
 And He led me towards the hills and the breaking of day in the lone East.
