OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST KING OF THE UNIVERSE 2017

Sunday 26th November 2017

Today is the feast of Christ the King.

We recall who it is that we serve and from whom we freely take our orders – Jesus. For some years now the Bishops have asked us to commemorate 'Youth Sunday' today, and we are truly blessed in Glossop with some fantastic young people who play an active part in the life of their local Church. We are proud of you, and salute you for your commitment to Christ and his Church.

It is only fitting that three of our Altar servers who this year moved into senior education should receive their Guild of St Stephen medals – the patron saint of Altar Servers, so well done to Owen Bowler, Harry Cox and Aeden Mallon. If you keep serving until you are 18 I will give you a silver medal! (FG)

Moving down a generation we welcome the First Holy Communion class from St Marys School at Mass today who will be presented to the parish in preparation for their First Holy Communion day on Sunday June 20th 2018.

Our thanks to Mrs Sarah Rudd and Mrs Tina Coomber for doing the Catechesis this year. (FG)

Next Sunday is the First Sunday of Advent, the preparation time for Christmas. Why not come to confession? The light is on, and it's on for you! Additionally, there will be sung Vespers and Benediction on a Sunday evening at 6pm – Beautiful! (FG)

During Advent there will be a 2 Deanery Reconciliation services. Firstly, in Marple Bridge on Wednesday 13th December at 7pm, then in Buxton on Wednesday 20th December at 7pm.

There will be a few Priests hearing confession at each event. (FG)

Christmas Mass Times: 6pm Christmas Eve (SMC)

11am Christmas Day (AS) - Spread the word! (FG)

Thoughts on Today's Readings:

Gospel Reading: Matthew 25 : 31-46

No other Gospel account has this story. From where did Matthew obtain it? Its central theme is the kingdom of Christ being assembled at the Resurrection and those who are worthy are taken into the kingdom of God.

The great surprise of the parable is that the kind and the selfish alike did not consider Christ in their kindness or selfishness. They responded, or failed to, to human need. All are surprised at the Lord's praise or blame - God was not in their thinking.

But this is a story - not history or prophecy. It is a parable and the teaching is for those who listen to the story and take its lesson: the oneness of the human family.

It is startling that hell is given to those who did not help others. No cruelty is involved, no malice, no choosing to cause suffering - simply not being kind draws eternal condemnation, - frightening teaching. And the reward of the virtuous is hard to appreciate: eternal life for being kind! The extremes are amazing. It is the Aramaic mind which saw and expressed truth in vivid and violent opposites ("loving God and hating family", which simply means putting family in second place).

Is it possible that Mark and Luke chose not to use this parable because it was too extreme for their readers? But it remains Gospel - what is its meaning? Essentially, it praises and rewards kindness, condemns and punishes selfishness. But it remains a parable - not a prophecy. Ignorance does not merit heaven nor does it deserve hell. We ponder . . .

Please let Father Greg or Maddy know of any names that need to be added to those taken from both Churches' Registers of Deaths, or if for any reason you prefer that a name isn't on the candle.
