THIRD SUNDAY OF 2019

Sunday 27th January 2019

We welcome Fr Martin Sylvester as our new Parish Priest.

We welcome Fr Martin to our community here in Glossop, and wish him many happy years with us as our Parish Priest.

Please pray for him as he settles with us here.

RIP - Our prayers are asked for the repose of the soul of Paddy O'Neill, who died recently. May his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Fr Greg Tobin is a close family friend of the O'Neills, and he will be travelling from Derby to celebrate Mr O'Neill's Requiem Mass, in St Mary Crowned, at 11am on Wednesday 6th February, God willing. (FM)

Holocaust Memorial Day - 27th January

Lord God and Father,

We remember before you all those who bear the inner and outer scars of the Holocaust and of subsequent acts of genocide.

Let them not be overwhelmed by the horrors that engulfed them. Be close to them.

Help them to see that you suffer with those who suffer, and that no wickedness can extinguish your infinite love.

Restrain those filled with hatred and use violence to pursue their ends. Change their hearts.

Help us to recognise our own capacity for evil and allow your Spirit to purge it from our beings.

Help us to stand up against evil and oppression, even if that means we suffer ourselves.

Deepen our respect for everything you have made, and help us to share in securing the maximum good of every person who is alive in your world.

We ask this in the Name of your Son Jesus Christ, who died for our sins, carries our sorrows, heals our wounds, and is risen for our freedom.

Amen

Thoughts from Today's Second Reading: 1 Cor 12

Paul is disturbed at disunity in the Corinthian community. People are jealous of each other's gifts and he wants them to see that God gifts everyone differently – but always for the blessing of the whole community, the body spiritual.

In verses 22-27 Paul seems to suggest that the weakest and least in the community are the ones to be most honoured - the sick, the elderly, the mentally infirm.

God has created the body and we must learn to see it as God does, and a sign of this common understanding is that when one part of the body is in pain the whole person suffers.

We must look after one another. Compare the list of spiritual gifts in verses 27-30 to the one Paul gives in verses 8-10.

You will be interested in the contrast, but notice that the gift of tongues comes last in each list: the gift most likely to be commented on, even to be most proud of because it is so unusual, is the least important of the gifts.

Spiritual pride, boasting and showing off, have no place in Paul's way of thinking.

Nor in ours.

Annual "Valentine" Marriage Mass

The Annual Diocesan Marriage Mass, where married couples are able to renew their vows before the Bishop and receive his blessing on their Marriages, will take place on Sunday 10th February, 3pm at St Barnabas Cathedral.

This Mass is open to all couples who have received the sacrament of marriage and their families, but is especially appropriate to those recently married, or celebrating a significant anniversary or those who simply wish to renew their vows.

Please just turn up on the day, but if you want more information do not hesitate to contact Fr David Palmer, Chair of the Marriage and family Life Commission at:
