THE MOST HOLY TRINITY 2019

Sunday 16th June 2019

Father Martin's 30th Anniversary:

Fr Martin writes,

"Thank you for organising such a lovely celebration for the thirtieth Anniversary of my priestly ordination. So much wonderful food! And such good company.

The visitors from the last parish I served were full of praise for those who had made the event so special.

"I'm grateful as well for the lovely cards, encouraging words, and generous gifts that I received from parishioners of our two parishes.

"It was a joyful surprise, too, to be presented with an album of greetings from children at All Saints and St Margaret's when they came to All Saints for Holy Mass on Wednesday.

"May God bless you all for your kindness."

RIP:

Our prayers are asked for the repose of the souls of Kathleen Flanagan, Eileen Tagg and Harry McCabe, who all died recently.

May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

The funeral arrangements are: Kathleen Flanagan, 1pm on Tuesday 18th June at St Mary Crowned; Eileen Tagg, 12 noon on Wednesday 26th June at St Mary Crowned; Harry McCabe, 10.30am on Thursday 4th July at St Mary Crowned.

Fr Neil McLaughlin RIP:

Please pray for the soul of Fr Neil McLaughlin, a priest who served in several parishes in our Diocese, who died peacefully at home in Ireland last week. Fr Neil celebrated his Diamond Jubilee of Ordination in 2018. May he rest in Peace. Amen.

Day for Life, Sunday 16th June 2019:

The Day for Life 2019 will tackle the shocking reality of domestic abuse. One in four women and about one in six men suffer from domestic abuse in their lifetime.

His Holiness Pope Francis sent the following message of support:

'His Holiness Pope Francis sends his cordial best wishes to all those celebrating the 2019 Day for Life being held in England & Wales, Scotland & Ireland.'

Thoughts from today's Gospel Reading, Jn 16:12-15

The Last Supper discourse occupies chapters 14-17 of John's Gospel. It is extraordinarily beautiful.

Jesus speaks to the apostles, to the disciples and to his heavenly Father.

He gives assurances, makes promises, utters warnings, preaches truth, challenges the disciples' limited understanding, warns against the world and its values, and promises the Holy Spirit.

We marvel at the mind(s) of whoever wrote this Gospel. It is beyond a feat of memory: this is a recreation of the words at the Last Supper, a vivid imagining of the mind of Christ and an overwhelming insight into Jesus' short ministry – doomed to end that same evening in the Garden of Gethsemane.

Who would dare attempt such a recreation but someone who knew and loved the Lord, prayed for guidance to be faithful to the memory of the Supper (whether actually present or not) and bold enough to speak and meditate in the person of Christ?

Today's reading answers our question: in the Holy Spirit, promised in Jesus' words, all truth will be revealed.

Father, you sent your Word to bring us truth, and your Spirit to make us holy.

Through them we come to know the mystery of your life.

Help us to worship you,

by proclaiming and living our faith in you.

We ask you this, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
one God, true and living, for ever and ever. Amen
