PENTECOST SUNDAY 2019

Sunday 9th June 2019

Father Martin's 30th Anniversary:

We will be celebrating Father Martin's 30th Anniversary of Priesthood with a picnic with a shared table at All Saints Church after the 11.15am Mass this weekend.

Please come along to share in the celebrations!

Walsingham Pilgrimage:

This year's Diocesan Pilgrimage to Walsingham is on Saturday 15th June 2019.

PLEASE NOTE THE NEW TIMETABLE: Arrivals from 11am at the Catholic Shrine with Mass commencing at 12 noon celebrated by Bishop Patrick.

Thoughts from today's First Reading, Acts 2: 1-11

The disciples, either the 120 who chose Matthias or Joseph to take the place of Judas (Acts 1:15-26) or those who witnessed the Ascension (Acts 1:13-14), are meeting. It is fifty days after the Passover and is the feast of Pentecost, the feast of Weeks, commemorating the giving of the Law to Israel (Lev. 23:15-21).

There is miracle of wind & fire, of Spirit & tongues, and each one of them (12 or 120) is individually blessed. They babble in an emotional outburst, overwhelmed by the coming of the Holy Spirit.

All present would speak either Aramaic or Greek - there was no need for foreign languages, there was already a universal language: but the story is symbolic of the apostolic Church being called to preach to every nation.

That image develops through the devout Jews from around the world who are present for the Feast. They symbolise a waiting world, ready to welcome God's word.

Thought for the Week:

"There are different gifts
but the same Spirit;
there are different ministries
but the same Lord;
there are different works
but the same God who accomplishes all of them in everyone."

1 Corinthians 12.4-6
