Thoughts from today's Gospel Reading: Luke 11: 1-13

The Church knows three forms of the "Our Father": Luke (today), Matthew (6:9-13) and the Didache, a first-century book of prayer. All three versions are simply a guide to prayer, themes for prayer, but have been crystallised into being prayers themselves.

Luke's (today's) setting has Jesus at prayer, and his watching disciples ask him to teach them how to pray. In Matthew's Gospel, the setting is the Sermon on the Mount and Jesus gives the prayer to the crowd. In the Didache, Jesus' words of guidance have been formalised into being the prayer itself.

Jesus' amazing parable of the grumbling friend is a strange picture for God - but we remember the teaching because of its strange story. Annoying a friend at midnight to obtain bread for another friend is ridiculous - so we remember! The lesson is to pray to God at any time and there will be a reply.

But verses 9-11 are palpably untrue. Unanswered prayer is too common and frequent. What does Jesus mean?
