TWENTY FIFTH SUNDAY OF 2019

Sunday 22nd September 2019

Bishop Patrick asks our prayers for Fr Colin Taylor, who is unwell in hospital.

Our Lady, health of the sick, pray for him.

Thoughts from today's Gospel Reading: Lk 16:1-13

Here is your money market, stock exchange, insider dealings, madness dressed up as good business. There is not a good man amongst them in this parable vision of men consumed by greed.

A careless steward has been caught by his trusting master and is to be dismissed.

We would expect compensation to be made, but the careless steward becomes dishonest. He treats others by lessening their debts and they, too, become dishonest.

His intention is to secure a new place for himself, but who would trust a steward who has cheated his former employer?

There is the irony.

The debtors will use the dishonest steward but would never employ him. He has been foolish and dishonest and they, in their business-like way, can use him but not employ him.

Jesus' words (vv 9-13) stress the irony. No-one will trust you if you have become dishonest. They will use you, accept you as a colleague (so long as they suffer no personal loss from the dishonesty) but not pay you to work for them.

Dishonesty works amongst equals, but not at different levels. Thus greed and dishonesty cannot build a community which embraces all in love and makes them equal. Desire for money destroys community.

CAFOD UPDATE:

CAFOD FAST DAY. No one should be beyond reach of the love and support they need to thrive. This Fast Day, CAFOD invites us to fast, pray and give, so we can extend the hand of friendship to the world's poorest people.

Fabiano's village in rural Uganda has been devastated by drought. Every day, children would trek miles for water, risking their education – and safety. Donations from parishioners across England and Wales helped install a solar powered water pump in the village. Now Fabiano and his friends can collect water quickly and safely.

CAFOD BREAKFAST, Sunday 29th September.

Everyone is welcome to St Mary's Church Hall after 9.15am Mass to enjoy a bacon butty, croissant and a drink.

Family Fast Day, Friday 4th October.

CAFOD invites us to eat a simple meal for lunch or dinner and give the money we save to help children like Fabiano. Please collect a Fast Day envelope from church.
