TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY OF 2021

Sunday 29th August 2021

Back to the usual times

Fr Martin writes,

We are looking forward greatly to the re-opening of St Mary Crowned next week. I'm happy to express my deep gratitude—and I dare say very many people share that sentiment—for the sterling efforts of Fr Greg and the past and present members of the Glossop Parishes Maintenance Committee.

The completion of the first phase of the project is a testament to the way that they have planned and overseen this project, in liaison with diocesan authorities and professional advisers and contractors. Heartfelt thanks too to those people whose generosity has made the work possible.

The schedule for Holy Mass at weekends returns next weekend to the pattern that was in place before the Covid-19 lockdown and the closure of St Mary's, viz., Saturday evenings at All Saints at 6pm; and Sundays at St Mary Crowned at 9.15am and at All Saints at 11.15am.

Fundraising continues towards phase two of the works, and as you will have read in recent issues of this newsletter, some very generous donations have been made by people eager to see the job finished, so that an enclosed area for refreshments and meetings can be installed along with adequate lavatory facilities, to better fit the church for implementing our aspiration to be a more missionary and outward-looking parish with greater involvement in community life.

There's still a long way to go before we have enough money to start phase two, and every donation, however large or small, is most welcome.

Preparing for a baptism, Fr Martin writes,

The church wants parents to take their child's baptism seriously, and to approach the day of their child's baptism fully aware of the commitment they will be undertaking to bring up their child in the practice of the faith.

The next course for people hoping to have a baby or infant baptised in a Glossop parish will take place at All Saints on two Sunday afternoons, each time from 4pm until 5.30pm.

Part One is on Sunday 26th September, and Part Two is on Sunday 17th October, God willing.

The courses also help parents enjoy the day of their child's baptism more fully, because they know what to expect and have had a chance to reflect on the meaning behind the ceremonies of baptism.

Please pray for children soon to be baptised in our parishes, and for their parents.

Please bring this information to the attention of anyone whom you think might be wishing to have a baby or infant baptised this year, and who might not see this newsletter; even if they have already made contact with Fr Martin.

Parish Safeguarding Procedures – DBS Forms

As we open to more activities within our church communities, it is essential to ensure that all volunteers have an up-to-date DBS certificate.

Volunteer roles include: Catechists, Children's liturgy helpers, Extraordinary ministers, Visitors, Drivers and General helpers, anyone who comes into contact with children and vulnerable adults.

Volunteer duties must be covered by a diocesan DBS certificate even if the volunteer has a certificate from another role such as their employment.

The paperwork for applications has recently been updated and streamlined and is available from your parish safeguarding representative:

Thoughts from today's Gospel Reading Mark 7 : 1-8, 14-15, 21-23

In recent weeks we have had readings from John's Gospel. Now we return, year B, to Mark. Chapter 7 deals with three issues relating to the Pharisees: the washing of hands, the Corban vow, kosher food. We discover an intensity of religious practice that the Pharisees expect to see in Jesus' disciples - who are only ordinary folk. We smile at the casual nature of the disciples' activities, and understand Jesus' rebuke to the Pharisees that true following of the Law is in the heart, not in the outward observances. Note that only the first sentence of Jesus' teaching is addressed to the Pharisees: the following two sentences are in answer to the puzzlement of the disciples who have not understood his teaching. They, too, must learn that service of God is love, not mere outward observance; it is sin that separates us from God, not simply failing to follow ritual. © Watermead Apostolate
