THE MOST HOLY TRINITY 2022

SUNDAY 12TH JUNE 2022

We pray for Father Martin as he celebrates the 33rd anniversary of his Priestly Ordination this weekend. We wish him a joyful celebration of his anniversary and pray that he celebrates many, many more years of priesthood.

We give thanks for his generous service to our community here in Glossop, and pray that we respond in service to him in his mission to deepen our faith and to know the love of God in our lives.

A 'Thank You' from Monica and David Townend for Mass offerings requested for their welfare over the past few weeks.

Your support has been much appreciated.

The WHY? Course:

Invitation cards for this course are available in our churches, please take some for your family and friends.

There will be a meeting for all who have volunteered to help with the course this Sunday 12th June, 4pm – 5pm, in St Mary's Parish Hall. Please feel free to come to the meeting if you haven't yet volunteered but would like to help.

Joint Garden Party:

There will be a meeting at 7pm on Thursday 16th June, in All Saints parish room, to discuss the forthcoming Garden Party.

The Garden Party will be an enjoyable day for the family, as well as helping to raise funds for our parishes. Please do come along and join the discussions for the various stalls. Thank you!

Parish Walk:

Our next local walk will take place on Thursday 23rd of June starting at approximately 11am at St Mary's church (SMC).

The walk will be approximately 3 miles long with some uphill and downhill slopes going from SMC up to Simmondley, and finishing back at SMC for refreshments.

For anyone interested a sheet will be at the rear of St Mary's church to sign for approximate numbers taking part. NOTE strong shoes and suitable clothing are recommended.

GLOSSOP ROSARY:

We will be continuing the Rosary on Monday 13th June with the Mysteries of Light.

The Most Holy Trinity

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next Sunday, however, are designated as solemnities, special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith.

Today, on the first Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast invites us to consider what we believe about God, who has revealed himself to us in the Trinity—one God in three persons.

The readings open with a celebration of the ongoing creativity shown in the world around us and end with more reassurance that we always have the full presence of God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit available as a foundation for our lives as individuals and as a community.

Thoughts from the Gospel Reading: Jn 16:12-15

The verses of today's Gospel come near the end of Jesus' long discourse at the Last Supper. In the early part of this discourse, as we saw last week on Pentecost, Jesus offers assurances to the disciples. Even though he must leave the disciples, he tells them that they will have a future because of the help he will send them in the Holy Spirit. In this section he focuses more on the shape of the future, which will include Jesus' victory over the world that they will share in. The disciples of Jesus cannot know the future. They can only know that, whatever shape the future takes, they will not have to face it alone. They have the Spirit of Truth, who will continue to provide the teaching of Jesus in the future. Reading this passage on Trinity Sunday reinforces our understanding of the unity shared by the members of the Trinity. Although the idea of one God in three persons remains a mystery, we have the assurance that, as Jesus and the Father share all, Jesus and the Spirit share all.
