THIRTY SECOND SUNDAY OF 2016

Sunday 6th November 2016

First of all, congratulations to Mr Hickey, Headteacher, the staff, children and Governors of All Saints and St Margaret's Catholic Federation, now that the results of their recent OFSTED report are public.

Both Schools were judged to be good schools. Here is a summary of key findings for parents and pupils:

The Executive Headteacher's determined leadership has brought about significant improvements to the quality of teaching and outcomes for pupils since the last inspection.

The Executive Headteacher has clearly communicated his vision for the federation of All Saints and St Margaret's Catholic Primary Schools.

As a result, he is fully supported by leaders at all levels. Governors fulfil their roles effectively. They know the school well. They are ambitious for everyone associated with the school. They provide a good level of challenge & support for other leaders.

Middle leaders are methodical in their approach to bringing about improvements in their areas of responsibility. Leaders check regularly on how well pupils are doing. Leaders put in place additional support for pupils who need it so that they make good progress over time.

Teaching and learning across the school are now good. The work that teachers provide during lessons is closely matched to pupils' different levels of ability. Teachers and teaching assistants make effective use of their strong subject knowledge and questioning skills to help pupils understand new ideas and develop their skills. Reading is particularly well promoted in the school. Pupils express a great enthusiasm for reading and can describe quite particular preferences of authors and genres. Leaders promote pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development very well. Pupils feel safe in school. Their behaviour is good. They are polite, respectful and care for each other. Children get off to a good start in the Reception class because teaching is good. They make good progress and are well-prepared to start Year 1.

The full report will be on the OFSTED website later this week. (FG).

As we go to print preparations are underway for an event for all the secondary aged young people who are involved in the various ministries of our parish. The Diocesan Youth Service are doing the event. To all those young people I want to say a huge THANK YOU for everything you do. You're great!! (FG)

YEAR OF MERCY - EXHIBITION OF PAINTINGS AND ILLUSTRATED TALK

As a culmination of the Year of Mercy, we have invited Ghislaine Howard to exhibit four paintings that respond to this important idea. Ghislaine is an artist of international reputation who lives & works in Glossop, named as a 'Woman of the Year' in 2008 for her contribution to art and society. Ghislaine's painting of the 'Prodigal Son' & a large sketch for 'Welcome the Stranger' will be on view at Saint Mary's Church, & 'Feed the Hungry' and 'Clothe the Naked' will be on show at All Saints' Church. Ghislaine will give an Illustrated Talk about her work at Saint Mary's Church on Sunday 27th November, 3-4.30pm. The paintings will remain in both churches until December 18th. Please see poster & additional information in church. All welcome.

News from St Philip Howard Catholic Academy:

On Tuesday we celebrated All Saints Day with our local primary schools. Held at St Mary's Crowned, we joined with our parish in celebrating this Holy Day of obligation. It was a unique occasion & enjoyed by all. We hope to celebrate again for St Peter and St Paul in June. The High Peak Sports Awards were held in Buxton on Wednesday this week, celebrating sporting achievement and excellence. Jamie-Leigh Whittaker, Year 11, was runner up in the Young Sports Person of the Year Award, whilst Rohan O'Neill and Oliver Crompton picked up awards for their work as High Peak Sports Ambassadors. The pupils are an excellent representation of the school and highlight the excellent sporting talent we have here at SPH. We are very proud of their achievements. Well done!
