Moira Hind writes, CAFOD news:

CAFOD CAKE SALE – A HUGE THANK YOU to all who supported the Cake Sale after last Sunday's Masses in both churches. Everyone was very generous and £145.50 was raised. THANK YOU!

What's happening in our parishes:

Saturday 19th October, Sycamore part 2 begins.

The Sycamore sessions are for anyone who is interested in the Catholic faith and would like to find out more. The sessions are in St Mary's hall on Saturdays, from 10am – 12noon.

We start with a free breakfast, then watch some short films and discuss the films in small groups. The September sessions were very well attended and people who came said:

'The format is excellent, with unconditional acceptance when discussing'

'Small groups work well for me, it's very informative, I'm enjoying it more than I thought'

Part 2: On Saturdays, in St Mary's hall, 10 – 12noon
19th October – The Holy Spirit and the Church

26th October – The Bible

2nd November – Finding true freedom

Saturday 16th November, Joint parish Christmas Fayre, watch this space for details of stalls and attractions and how you can support the event.

Our guest correspondent writes,

'How to get more from the Mass – Part 14

'Any parent worth their salt will teach their children good habits: brush your teeth; don't eat sweets before meals; don't stay up late, respect others; pray before you eat and sleep.

'The list goes on. Why do parents do this? Many of these are simply good for our health, such as regularly brushing our teeth and getting into a bedtime routine.

'Also, habits provide resilience; we may not always feel like brushing our teeth or going to bed on time, but they become part of our daily routine and so we do them regardless.

'But also, habits form our attitudes.

'If you get into the habit of respecting others, you become a respectful person; if you get into the habit of praying, you become a prayerful person.

'There is one habit that we would do well to adopt as we say the Creed.

'Have you noticed how, in small print, we are told that we should bow as we say, "and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man"? Have you wondered why?

'A bow signifies our reverence and honour and, in these words, we are reverencing and honouring the Incarnation; the most fundamental mystery of Christianity.

'In Jesus Christ, God actually became man, born of a woman by the power of the Holy Spirit.

'The Incarnation is the most sacred moment in all human history and is what distinguishes us from every other faith.

'So, the next time you recite the Creed, remind yourself to bow at this point.

'If you are not used to it, it WILL feel a little strange at first; but DO persist.

'Over the coming weeks, you may find that your reverence for this most sacred mystery increases.

' "Act as though you have faith, and faith shall be given to you."

'This is not scriptural, but it's a good maxim by which to live.'
